What Must I Do To Be Saved?

1. Learn the truth (Hear) (John 8:32; 17:17; Rom 10:14-18)
2. Believe in Christ (John 8:24; 20:31; Heb 11:6)
3. Repent of all sins (Luke 13:3; Acts 17:30; Rom 2:4; 2 Cor 7:9,10)
4. Confess faith in Christ (Rom 10:10; Acts 17:30; Matt 16:16)
5. Be baptized into Christ for remission of sins (Acts 2:38; 22:16)
6. Live faithfully (Revelation 2:10)

7 THINGS TO REMEMBER DURING THE LORD'S SUPPER!

1 LORD. "There is one Lord." (Ephesians 4:5)

2 THIEVES. "There were also 2 others, criminals, led with Him to be put to death."
(Luke 23:32)

3 CROSSES. (Luke 23:39-43; Ephesians 1:7)

4 PARTS of HIS GARMENTS. "Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took His garments and made four parts, to each soldier, a part, and also the tunic." (John 19:23)

5 WOUNDS. His head was crowned with thorns. His back was scourged.

His side was cut open. His hands were pierced. His feet were pierced. (John 19-20)

6 HOURS of AGONY. Christ was crucified at the 3rd hour and died at the 9th hour.

(Mark 15:25-37)

Happy Thanksgiving

God is truly good and there is every reason to be thankful for His overflowing kindness.

He gives freely of His bounty so our physical needs are met, even on the unrighteous (Acts 14:17; Matt. 5:44, 45). For many receiving this, God has blessed us to live in a nation with security and freedom unknown to untold millions. Thank you God.

The Creator has graciously given us families who love us and through whom we enjoy many blessings (Prov. 18:22; Psa. 127:3). Parents who provided for us, raised us, and looked out for our interests. Brothers and sisters to enjoy growing up; friends who were always there. Children that bring unimaginable joy and help us see purity. Wives and husbands who commit to loving us, even when we are unlovable; who will stick with us through thick and thin.

God gives Christians a spiritual family, the household of faith (Gal. 6:10). These are men and women of like precious faith; people committed to truth and righteousness-the best people in the world. Fellow saints are there for us in our hour of need. They pray for us and give words of comfort. At times just to see them at the assembly brings a feeling of reassurance. May God help us always to see the blessing of our church family.

Above all, God gave His Son (Jn. 3:16). As with other blessings, but especially this one, we do not deserve it (Rom. 5:6-8). Still, His grace prompted Him to act on our behalf. Through Jesus we have a pure conscience; guilt is no longer oppressive in our lives. In Him we enjoy stability in the storms of life, understanding that though all may forsake us, our Savior is there (Heb. 6:18, 19; 13:5, 6). Our hearts are filled with hope; hope of a better place with pure bliss. In Christ we can live with great joy and meaning, though being tested by fire. Let us never forget to be thankful for our Lord. On this Thanksgiving Day, may God bless, comfort, and keep you.

"Be Ye Thankful"

By Larry Ray Hafley

For children of God, every day is a day of thanksgiving. Even our pleas and petitions are to be accompanied by expressions of thanks, "With thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God" (Phil. 4:6). Jesus commended the giving of thanks for kindnesses shown and blessings bestowed (Luke 17). One of the first signs of depravity is the lack of thankfulness (Rom. 1:21). Truly, brethren, "be ye thankful" (Col. 3:15). "In everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you" (1 Thess. 5:18).

While our nation's "Thanksgiving Day" is not a special day of worship for the people of God, it is encouraging to note the gracious words of reverence and respect that instituted our national holiday.

President George Washington said:

Whereas it is the duty of all nations to acknowledge the providence of Almighty God, to obey his will, to be grateful for his benefits, and humbly to implore his protection and favor ... now therefore I do recommend and assign Thursday, the 26th day of November . . . to be devoted by the people of these States to the service of that great and glorious Being, who is the beneficent Author of all the good that was, that is, or that will be; that we may then all unite in rendering unto him our sincere and humble thanks for his kind care and protection of the people of this country.. .

President Abraham Lincoln said:

The year that is drawing to its close has been filled with the blessings of fruitful fields and healthful skies. . . . No human counsel hath devised, nor hath any mortal hand worked out these great things. They are the gifts of the . . . Most High God. . . . I do, therefore, invite my fellow citizens in every part of the United States . . . to set apart and observe the last Thursday of November . . . as a day of Thanksgiving and Praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the heavens.

Can anyone imagine our current president being able to express similar sentiments without being hooted off the stage and ridiculed in the liberal press? Is it any wonder, therefore, that our nation's moral and spiritual fiber is coming apart at the seams, whether in the darkness of deprived ghettos or in brightness of depraved corporate board rooms?

Until presidents can once again echo the wonderful words of Washington and Lincoln without fear of mocking derision, our great country will continue its inevitable decline. But, while we fervently pray and fondly hope for a new birth of respect for holiness and godliness, let us not fail to give thanks and praise "to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in" heaven.
